FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Ed in the Refridgerators Would Make an Excellent Pope!

Ed in the Refridgerators will celebrate the release of "...Get Excommunicated" (and hopefully their election to the papacy) with a party at the Middle East Upstairs on Saturday, May 14th, 2005. This will be a special afternoon all ages show featuring Harry and the Potters, Ponies in the Surf, and Uncle Monsterface all performing triumphantly alongside Ed.

Notes about Ed in the Refridgerators:

Joe DeGeorge and Andrew MacLeay have been playing together for nearly 6 years as Ed in the Refridgerators. They began the band in the summer of 1999 when they were just 12 years old. They released a demo called "Good is Dumb" in the fall of 1999 and a "full-length" called "It Could Happen to You" in early 2002. They also wrote their first pope song in 2002. Joe also plays in Harry and the Potters. If elected, Ed in the Refridgerators promise to be a fair and honorable pope.
